This camp is about returning to our first Love, abiding in Him and stepping into the adventure of God's call for your life!

How does God feel about the rapid rise of anxiety – depression - fear - despair that seems to be seizing this current generation of kids? It's like an asthmatic, choking, wildfire smoke, stealing them of their hope and drive as they grow toward adulthood. Much of this (also in adults) is directly attributable to addiction to modern media/technology that are used by the Evil One to urgently, constantly, SCREAM for our attention, working to distracting us from His promises. In the meantime, the Lord is patiently whispering to our hearts that we need to ABIDE in Him, in His REST, letting His peace rule our lives, in a way that isn't so "religious/churchy" as we Americans typically think when we imagine "spending time with God". A truly meaningful time with God does not have to be a "super-spiritual" encounter, but instead can occur with something as simple as sitting by the stream, or strolling along a soft, forest path. He desires to refresh your soul and re-energize your heart.

NOTE: No Cell Phones

Step into the adventure of God's call for you!
